

Erick Ramos

TAX PRINCIPAL

(212) 697-2299

Erick Ramos is a seasoned tax professional, offering specialized guidance to individuals and businesses, navigating them through the intricacies of tax compliance and consulting. His expertise lies in empowering clients to effectively handle their tax matters, optimize their financial positions, and maintain compliance with the continually evolving landscape of applicable tax laws.

In the realm of tax compliance, he specializes in the preparation of multi-state and consolidated tax returns. Navigating the complexities of tax regulations across jurisdictions, he ensures timely and accurate filings for a variety of entities, demonstrating a commitment to compliance and precision.

Erick's strategic approach extends to tax planning, where he leverages his comprehensive knowledge to develop effective initiatives. He proactively identifies opportunities for tax savings, implementing tailored strategies that minimize liabilities and optimize financial outcomes for clients. A crucial aspect of his skill set involves thorough tax reviews, where he meticulously examines tax data to guarantee accuracy and compliance.

Client communication is a priority in his professional approach. He possesses strong interpersonal skills, allowing him to effectively convey complex tax concepts to clients and build lasting relationships based on trust and transparency.

Proficient in Excel, tax and accounting software, He leverages technology to analyze financial data, model scenarios, and derive valuable insights for decision-making. This technical proficiency enhances his ability to streamline processes and provide data-driven solutions.

