Ralph Liberatoscioli

PARTNER

Ralph is a detailed-oriented assurance and tax professional who focuses on the nuances of your accounting and internal control processes and procedures.

Ralph provides audit, accounting and tax services to clients, with an emphasis on not-for-profit organizations. With a diverse background that includes the manufacturing and distribution, real estate, and financial services industries, Ralph collaborates closely with his clients to help them build market confidence and capitalize on growth opportunities and tax savings. His extensive business knowledge and strong technical financial accounting experience allows him to provide value-added assurance, tax and advisory services to his clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Ralph was a partner in a national top 50 CPA firm. He has also been the assurance practice leader and responsible for the quality control of a 100 person local firm.

Professional affiliations

• American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA)

• New York State Society of certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA)

Representative Experience

• Providing audit, accounting and tax services to clients with an emphasis on the following industries:

Not-for-profit organizations

Manufacturing and distribution

Real estate

Financial services

EDUCATION & CERTIFICATIONS

Certified Public Accountant (New York, 1988)

M.B.A, Hofstra University (1983)

B.B.A., Hofstra University (1981)

SERVICES

NOT-FOR-PROFIT AUDIT